After turning the company around, Cathy left to start Legacy Onward, Inc., bringing leadership coaching services to family businesses and the professional services industry. She is passionate about helping leaders thrive and successfully transition to executive level roles.

Cathy blends her leadership experience with her MBA at the University of Chicago Booth School of Business, her BA at Boston College, and her coach training at Georgetown University. A Professional Certified Coach (PCC) in the International Coach Federation, Cathy is certified in Hogan Assessments, The Leadership Circle 360 and TetraMap®.
